

What's Hot and What's Not... Cabinetry Trends for 2012!

Changing Lifestyles call for changing living spaces. We invite you to join us for a FREE presentation on trends in Home Layout, Kitchen Design, Color & Style, Storage, and Additional "Hot Rooms" on the evening of February 7th. Take an early look at the top cabinetry trends in style, functionality and customization for 2012.

Do you look at life and everything in it a little differently? So does Sandra Lutichens-Van Allen, Director of Inspired Learning for MasterBrand Cabinets, Inc., one of the leading cabinet manufacturers in the industry. Sandra's seminar will focus on looking at life and the constantly changing influences that surround us and how they impact the core of design today and into the future.

Sandra has been with MasterBrand Cabinets since 1996 and has won numerous design awards. Sandra has written articles for and had designs published in Kitchen & Bath Design News and other industry publications, and speaks Nationally on industry-related topics.
